FREE FILM FESTIVAL ON TAP

The Carson City Community Center and Western Nevada College are venues for free viewing of three foreign feature-length films, three independently produced films, and several Brewery Arts Center contest-winning short films.

The multi-day event is Thursday-Saturday, Feb. 5-7. Last year's event was a rousing success, paving the way for this year's larger festival. To facilitate the transition from an experiment to an annual event, organizers brought together the Carson City Library, the Carson City Community Center and Western Nevada College as collaborators.
